Our File No. A/A 11240

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Like you, I am always trying to improve on how I do my work. One way I do that is to ask for feedback from my clients after our work is done. I am hoping that you would take a few moments and answer the following questions. If you do not feel comfortable answering them, just put that down.

1. Completeness with which your questions were answered.

They were answered quite completely. One thing I really appreciated was that you took extra time to talk with me about the custody situation when I was unsure as to how to proceed or after significant meetings.

2. Expertise displayed regarding your questions.

Often you would refer to previous cases you have handled, which made me more comfortable with the situation. Citing your expertise in this area made me feel more comfortable about it.

3. Did you feel comfortable dealing with me. I must admit that I was nervous at first as it was the first time I had dealt with a lawyer; However, after a couple of meetings, I became quite comfortable.
